

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

New and Improved Link 16 Executive Course

We have just completed a complete redesign of our Link 16 Executive Course. We decided to take a step back and think about what an "Executive" within a Link 16 organization needs to know. We decided to highlight the "sexy" side of Link 16; making it far less technical (no ones and zeros) and far more interesting (all new graphics). We decided that the best learning outcome for a Link 16 Executive student would be to understand and be able to explain why Link 16 is such an asset to operators and commanders alike, what it brings to the modern battlespace, and how it will shape the future of warfare. This is a half-day training course with no prerequisites.
